

ROAD MAP – Your guide to completing the Latin America SWAY Project

GO: Tuesday, May 8 -- Begin your journey:

1. Team reads the prompt.
2. Team begins research on their selected country's push/pull factors,
3. Team makes a list of push factors and pull factors, then determine if those factors are environmental, economic, social or political.
4. Team writes a thesis statement that includes the three factors your team chooses to research.

STOP: END OF CLASS Tuesday, May 8:

Team MUST get the thesis sentence approved by teacher before moving the next leg of the journey.

GO: Wednesday-Thursday, May 9-10

1. Each team member chooses one of the three factors selected by the team and begins in depth research.
2. Each team member creates 2-column notes which include details and elaborations.
3. Each team member will keep track of the sources and include in-text citations on your 2-column notes.

STOP: Friday, May 11 – SEMESTER TEST

At this point in the journey, each student will use their two column notes to complete their semester test (see rubric) during a single class period.

GO: Monday, May 14 – HOMEWORK

Team members divide and conquer the hook and general info of the introduction, and the conclusion and bring drafts to school for TUESDAY

GO: Tuesday, May 15

1. Check in with your team to see if you need to complete tasks at home!!
2. Team members fix any edits in their individual body paragraphs.
3. Teams finalize introduction and conclusion.
4. Team members begin to collect AWESOME visuals that will enhance your presentation!!

GO: Wednesday – Friday, May 16-18

1. Check in with your team to see if you need to complete tasks at home!!
2. Build Sway slides (follow the checklist!!!!!!)
3. Remember – start by FIRST putting in all of your text!!
4. THEN start getting creative with graphics, background, theme and font.

FINISH LINE: FRIDAY, MAY 18 --PROJECT IS DUE AT THE END OF THE PERIOD