Nova Grammatica:

Latin sentences with the verb “est” often have the same word order as in English.

Grumio est coquus.

Grumio is a cook.

Latin sentences with other verbs usually have a different word order.

Clēmēns in hortō dormit.

Clemens is sleeping in the garden.

---

Latin has one present tense. It can be translated into English in three different ways.

Caecilius in tablīnum scribit.

1. Caecilius is writing in the study.
2. Caecilius writes in the study.
3. Caecilius does write in the study.
