

Mr. Rowsey's classroom expectations and rules

- Be punctual
- Be prepared
- Be productive
- Be respectful
- Be responsible
- Be a graduate
- Have high expectations for yourself
- Write with a pencil or black or blue ink pen
- Raise your hand to ask/answer a question

Class Expectations:

I fully expect all students to be respectful and treat all others with kindness and understanding. There may be times that come up where we have discussions and educational debates, but we must respect other opinions and have peaceful conversation that leads to better understanding of one another.

Phone and electronics:

Phones and electronics will be put away at all times. This includes, but is not limited to; earbuds, tablets, phones, and other devices.

Cheating:

Academic Integrity: Students are expected to have high standards of integrity. Any student who cheats or plagiarizes on examinations or assignments, falsifies, or fails to give requested academic information on documents in the case of academic integrity and appropriate disciplinary action by Capital High School. Cheating, plagiarism, fabrication, deception, and complicity are wrong and undermine our ability to enjoy and profit from this class. I will investigate all suspected cases of cheating and plagiarism, and will penalize all verified instances. If you are unsure about whether some actions constitute plagiarism, please ask me!

This is intended as a set of guidelines for this course and the instructor reserves the right to make modifications in content, schedule, and requirements as necessary to promote the best education possible within conditions affecting this course. Any changes to the course will be communicated with the students.

If you or your parent has any questions about policies or subjects not covered in this or the syllabus, please refer to the student handbook for Capital High located at <https://helenaschools.org/handbooks/>