Suggested Supplies:

Folder/binder (for packets)

Pens and/or pencils

Notebook paper

COOPERATIVE

Preparedness:

You will be given unit packets for each unit we study. You must bring these every day.
Have your chromebooks charged and ready to go.

Attendance:

Please be here and be on time. The more time you spend in class the more bilingual you will become.
Missed class? No problema. Just go to Teams > Señor Marco's Page > Daily Video Instruction (I missed class). I will post daily videos explaining what we learned and what tasks you need to complete.
See me to schedule exams due to absence.

Participation:

This is a language course, and you cannot learn a language without speaking it daily. You should expect to be called on to practice verbally at any point during class, and please consider that a third of your grade is earned verbally.

Parents, if your child has a diagnosis of anxiety that the school is not aware of, then please meet with me in person or over the phone to discuss your student's needs. Email me any time or call me before/after school or during my prep hour (10:02- 10:54).

RESPECTFUL

Best advice- Do not do anything that interrupts your learning or the learning of others.
That being said:

- No phones (unless specified on the exceedingly rare occasion)
- No hoods
- No headphones (I will check)

ACHIEVERS

Grading:

Grades are broken into two categories:

- Unit exams will be worth 50% or more of your total grade.
- Weekly comprehension checks will be worth the remainder of the points.
- Semester exams are worth 10-15% of your total semester grade.

Grading Scale: 90-100 = A, 80-89 = B, 70-79 = C, 60-69 = D, Below 60% = F

Homework?

Study quizlet vocabulary at home 10 minutes a day +/-.

Other than that, homework is very rare.

Late work:

A due date exists so that:

1. You can be given adequate and timely feedback.
2. So that you do not become overwhelmed by work that WILL pile up.

All make-ups/ redoes/ late work will be accepted until the end of the quarter.

HAVING FUN

We will play games, we will get loud, and we will have some fiestas.

PARENTS- I will reach out for your support in emails.
